EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- ### Executive Summary: AI & Design Research (October 8, 2026)
- Anthropic Launches Claude Haiku 5.5: Anthropic has released its newest small-tier model, featuring "adaptive thinking" and updated effort settings, positioned to directly challenge OpenAI's GPT-6 Luna in cost-efficiency and performance.
- Expansion of Enterprise MCP Governance: Celigo has introduced a new management layer for Model Context Protocol (MCP) servers, allowing enterprises to secure, proxy, and audit third-party AI connections, signaling a shift toward more controlled enterprise AI deployments.
- Industry-Specific MCP Server Proliferation: Major firms are increasingly exposing proprietary data via MCP; Tinuiti has released the "Bliss Point" server for media intelligence, while Precisely has integrated MCP support to allow AI agents direct, governed access to its enterprise data management tools.
- Hardware Tailored for Local Agent Workflows: ASUS has launched the "ProArt RTX Spark" PC line, specifically engineered to support local AI agent development frameworks, including out-of-the-box compatibility with ComfyUI and Hermes Agent.
- Orchestration Framework Maturity: Multi-agent development continues to scale with the release of LangGraph v1.2.14 and CrewAI v1.15.25, the latter of which introduces critical new evaluation tools to improve the reliability of complex agent workflows.

SECTION 1 — NEW AI MODELS
